MULTI LAYERS OF COLORS

- This option is painted in many different colors of various layers and it is covered with black for the finish. The Tibetan letter is curved with CNC milling machine, so that you see the variations of colors through the shape of the letter removed by CNC.

The expressions of the letter can be changed depending on how deep the letter is curved.

It was very interesting project to work on and it was exciting to design something for Tibetan culture. I never imagined to design a souvenir for Tibetan temples.

Thank you very much giving such a great experience!

Hope to colaborate with this project farther.
